MEMORANDUM FOR: Mr. Kirkpatrick

Kirk:

25X1A2g

A day or two after the most recent running of Project [REDACTED] Mr. McCone, at one of the morning meetings, raised a question of whether or not it was really worthwhile and should be continued.

Members of Matt Baird's staff interviewed eight senior officers from among the fifty-one participants, and there was unanimous agreement that the project serves a constructive purpose and should be continued. We also received a letter from the Commandant of the Defense Intelligence School evaluating the two-day program on behalf of his five faculty members who attended and all of them responded favorably.

In the light of this reaction, I would suggest that we continue to offer the two-day [REDACTED] program twice a year. Would you mention this to Mr. McCone and, if he agrees, we will proceed to plan accordingly. If you feel a more formal presentation is warranted, we will be glad to furnish it.
